BONALDO

Amman

Designer: Kristiina Lassus

Amman, designed by Kristiina Lassus, is a rug born from meticulous craftsmanship, capable of enhancing any interior with natural elegance.
Handcrafted in India from jute and cotton, Amman stands out for its hand-woven, flat-weave jacquard construction, a technique that combines durability with visual refinement.
Amman draws on traditional techniques passed down through generations. Each piece is hand-woven by skilled artisans through processes that require extended production times and meticulous attention to every detail.
Ethically and environmentally sustainable, it is designed for those who seek authentic beauty while respecting both people and the environment.
