BONALDO

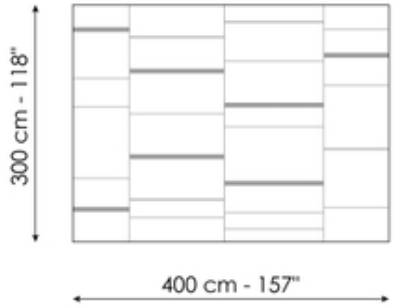

Lomé

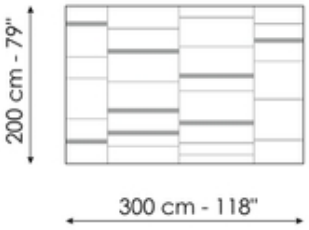

Designer: Kristiina Lassus

The Lomé rug, designed by Kristiina Lassus, is the result of time-honoured craftsmanship, giving life to a furnishing accessory that enhances any interior with authenticity and character.
Hand-knotted using traditional techniques that require time and considerable expertise, Lomé is the result of a slow and meticulous process. Its Persian knot construction ensures a dense and durable weave.
The rug is made in Pakistan from hand-spun, hand-dyed, low-pile wool: a choice that lends it softness and visual depth, while creating subtle and precious variations in colour and texture.
